

Memorial University researchers are looking for students to participate in a study about their experiences of school, work and mobility.

Do you go to school and work?

Have you ever moved away from home to seek education or employment?

When you finish your program, do you anticipate moving for work?

Whether you have answered YES or NO to these questions, we want to hear from you!

Please contact Dr. Nicole Power by phone (709.864.6914) or email (npower@mun.ca) to take part in an interview.

This research is part of the On the Move Partnership.
