It's very hard on home life, very hard you know, and this is why you see a lot of older ladies in the home care.” Janette, home care worker

Interprovincial live-in rhythms

Hallelujah [because] I think it's just the part that you are not able to do what you want. Like, when you are home, you go where you want, when you want, with whom you want sort of thing. But over there, you're really, most of us are pretty well restricted to a certain degree Janice, home care worker
